SAYS AUSTRIANS
QUIT TOLMINOA Correspondent Reports
Isonzo Town in Italian Hands.

Paris, July 12.—According to a dispatch to the "Journal" from the Italian front, the Austrians appear to have evacuated Tolmino, on the Isonzo front. The correspondent says that the activity of the Austrians in that region is felt less and less.

The Italians advanced yesterday in the Adige Valley and won back part of the positions on Monte Corno lost to the Austrians on Monday.

The Italian official statement says: "Yesterday in the region of the Adige Valley we made some progress, north of the Serra Valley and in the region of Malga Zugna. On the slopes north of the Passabio we partially re-occupied positions on Monte Corno which we lost on July 10."

"In the Tofana region we exploded a mine which destroyed the enemy's defenses east of Col de Boia."

"On the Isonzo front our batteries set fire to encampments of the enemy on the Isonzo, broke up an enemy column in the Idria Valley and caused explosions near the Church of Santa Maria in Tolmino."

"Hostile aircraft dropped bombs on Latisana, causing a fire, which was extinguished quickly. Our air squadrons on July 10, bombarded Tione, in Giudicaria Valley, and on July 11 the enemy's camps at Monte Rover, north-east of Lavarone. Our aeroplanes returned safely."

GERMANS CHECK
RUSSIAN DRIVE
ALONG STOKHOD

Reinforced Lines Hold Steady Before Fur-
rious Assaults.

COSSACK HORSES A LIVING BREASTWORKS

Cavalry Paves Way for Infantry and Forces Crossings on River.

London, July 12.—The situation on the Eastern front has shown little change since yesterday. The battle continues along the Stokhod River with the same determination to win animating the opposing forces. The Germans are reported to be bringing up all possible reinforcements and guns in an endeavor to save Kovel, against which the Russians are advancing along two railway lines.

Russian detachments failed in an attempt to establish themselves on the left bank of the river near Janowka. German forces were driven back over the stream after crossing it near Grouchivka.

In this sector the Teutons have taken 2,700 prisoners in the last two days, while the Russians bagged 760 of the enemy's troops on Monday.

Big Blow Expected.

The heavy fighting along the Stokhod apparently is merely an earnest of what later may be expected in the persistent and desperate campaign of General Brusiloff to reach this important railway junction regardless of losses.

The retirement, according to advices from Austrian headquarters, was for strategic purposes. The Russians had worked well around the flanks of the old position, and if material and units were to be saved the retirement over an almost roadless country had to be effected at a good pace. As it was, the Austro-German forces barely reached the positions behind the Stokhod before the Russians were hammering at the crossings.

Comparative quiet prevails along the rest of the Eastern front. The Russian request for a short armistice was refused.

U-BOATS SUNK 61
FREIGHTERS IN JUNE

Berlin, July 12.—An official statement issued to-night says:

"In the month of June sixty-one of the enemy's merchantmen, measuring about 101,000 tons, were sunk by German and Austro-Hungarian submarines or by mines."

U-BOAT ATTACKS
ENGLISH PORT

One Woman Killed in the Bombardment of Unde-fended Town.

London, July 12.—The English port of Seaham Harbor was attacked last night by a German submarine. About thirty rounds of shrapnel were fired.

One woman was killed by the bombardment. One house was struck by a shell.

The official announcement says:

"At 10:30 o'clock last night a German submarine appeared off the small, undefended port of Seaham Harbor (on the North Sea, six miles southeast of Sunderland, a coal shipping port). She approached within a few hundred yards of the town and then opened fire. Some thirty rounds of shrapnel were fired from a 8-inch gun. Twenty rounds fell in the direction of Dalton-daie; a dozen rounds fell in and about Seaham Colliery."

"A woman walking through the colliery yard was seriously injured and died this morning. One house was struck by a shell. No other damage was done."

German 'Planes Bombard

Calais and Army Camps

Berlin, July 12 (By Wire)—Two German aeroplanes made an attack on the Channel port of Calais on Monday night. It was announced officially to-day. They dropped bombs on the port and on army encampments.

The Admiralty gave out the following statement:

"Two German aeroplanes on the night of July 10-11 dropped bombs on Calais and the troop camps at Bray-Dunes (near the Belgian frontier). The aeroplanes returned undamaged."

"On the Stokhod there were artillery duels. In the region of the village of Kochovka the enemy attempted to approach the Stokhod, but was repulsed by our fire."

"An earlier announcement reads:

"On the whole front, from Riga to Polesie, there was intermittent artillery and rifle fire. German aviators dropped bombs on the station of Zamiatie and the town of Niesviz, where several houses were set on fire."

"Persistent fighting continues on the

GERMANS PUSH
NEARER SOUVILLE

Advance East of Meuse,
but Lose in Fumin
Wood.

FRENCH WREST BACK
LORRAINE TRENCHES

Conduct Successful Operation in Champagne and Repulse the Enemy.

London, July 12.—In the thrust against the defenses of Verdun east of the Meuse, which the Germans launched yesterday, they have made further progress. To-day they pushed nearer Fort Souville and the Lauffe Works, their immediate objectives.

"The enemy succeeded, at the cost of enormous losses," Paris admits in to-night's official statement, "in gaining a little ground in the neighborhood of the Chapel of Sainte Fine, at the intersection of the Fleury and Vaux roads."

The attack was made with six regiments in massed formation on a narrow front, where they were taken under the deadly French fire and literally mowed down.

Having maintained their grip on the Thiaumont work, but failed to debouch therefrom, the Germans now are trying to push forward their left flank.

Yesterday, after a terrific bombardment, one column sought to work its way along the railroad which runs around Hill 320 toward the Fleury station, situated in the eastern extremity of the village, but it melted away before the French fire, as did another column attacking Chapiteau Wood.

Columns debouching from Vaux Fort, however, succeeded in getting a bare footing, after intense fighting, in the Fumin Wood to the west, and in the ruined Damloup battery, one of the subsidiary outer defenses of Verdun, which lies three-quarters of a mile southwest of the village, on the edge of the Lauffe plateau.

French Win Back Lines.

The Germans were unable to hold their advantage in the Fumin Wood, however, a night counter-attack driving them out of a large part of the occupied territory. The positions they hold in the battery are swept by guns from Souville, Tannettes and Bourvaux, and it is not believed they can be held for long.

On the left bank of the river several German attacks on the French trenches at Le Mort Homme were repulsed.

In the Lorraine and Vosges sectors the Germans are continuing their sharp local attacks, probably to conceal the transfer of troops to the Somme front. To-day they were driven out of the trenches near Reillon, in Lorraine, which they captured yesterday.

German Gains Admitted.

To-night's French statement says: "On the left bank of the Meuse a rather spirited artillery action occurred in the sector of Le Mort Homme."

"On the right bank the Germans undertook this morning a strong effort in the direction of Fort Souville. About 10 o'clock, after intense artillery preparation, a strong attack with effectives of six regiments debouched from the village of Fleury and the Vaux and Chapiteau Woods."

"Notwithstanding the violence of the assaults, which were launched in massed formation on a front relatively narrow, the enemy succeeded at the cost of enormous losses in gaining only a little ground in the neighborhood of the Chapel of Sainte Fine, at the intersection of the Fleury and Vaux roads."

Wood, in both of which localities the Germans regained some ground, all these attacks were beaten off with loss to the enemy.

Between the main battlefield and the sea we have been actively engaged in bombarding the enemy's positions and raiding his front line. Southeast of Loos a party of Royal Irish Fusiliers penetrated the enemy's trenches at a point where they were strongly held, and remained there for twenty minutes, during which time heavy fighting took place in the trenches. Many Germans were killed. Our casualties were slight.

Opposite the Hohenzollern redoubt two companies of Sixth Highlanders forced their way into another portion of the enemy's trenches after a stiff fight
